

The Junior League of Hampton Roads is helping to the Virginia Living Museum (VLM) celebrate their 50th birthday by coordinating a Birthday Cake Contest during the Community Day on November 13, 2016! On this day, the museum will be offering $.50 admission to all attendees to thank the community for their support for 50 years. Cakes will be judged on appearance only. Museum attendees will judge between 9:00am – 2:00pm. Winners announced around 3:00pm.

We want to see your cake! We are looking for professional and amateur bakers to decorate your best VLM Birthday inspired cake, and bring it for our whole community to see! Please also consider leaving any marketing materials (tablecloth, flyers, business cards, etc.), so your business and talents can be promoted. Prizes will be awarded in several categories, so get creative – a birthday theme, VLM theme, or whatever you come up with!

RULES: Cake submission must be a cake (no cupcakes or pies), cake must feed at least 50 sample size portions and be able to fit on a 2' x 2' tabletop space. Cakes must have a title for their entry. No restriction on height. Please list all potential food allergens in your cake (i.e. wheat, eggs, dairy, nuts, etc.) below. Register by noon on Thursday, November 3, 2016. Cakes must be dropped off at the VLM between 7:30 and 8:00am on Sunday, November 13, 2016. Bakers are not required to be present during the event. All items you wish to have returned to you must be labeled. Pick up for these items will be Monday, 11/14 during museum hours.
